It would be difficult to find anywhere a better lot of boots and shoes than Cady & Co. now have at the Glenns' Block Shoe Store. They have been receiving new goods daily for some time past, including all the new and desirable styles, and are selling at extremely low prices.

The finest assortment of ladies' shoes in the city can now be found at Jones, Vinnedge & Co's shoe house; gaiters, silk gore heel, at $1 to $1 85 per pair; slippers, 50 cents to $1 25; kid lasting and fancy toilet slippers. Their stock is full and complete. Prices the lowest in the mar-ket. Ladies, go and see them.

THE INDIANA WOUNDED .- We learned yesterday, at the Executive office, that a dispatch from Mr. Holloway, the Governor's Private Secretary, had been received, stating that all of the Indiana wounded at the battle of Pittsburg, able to be removed, were on their way home. This is welcome news to those near and dear to these brave men throughout the State.

DEATH OF COL. SION S. That beautiful nebular ambrotype at the Pantheon is the finest picture of the kind we have ever seen, very classic, besides being a fine likeness. We notice several of our city poets and artists there. The painted photographs are also very fine. There are several of Reed's landscapes there, and a fruit piece that looks very lucious, about as true to nature as anything we ever saw. Henderson. On the whole the Pantheon is a very stylish little gailery and well worth a visit. Pennsylvania street, at the Ætna Building.

Gone After the Fight is Over. EDITOR SENTINEL: "Folks say" the editor of the Journal took with him on his trip to the field-of-war two copies of the Sentinel to secure protection from the seceshers in case of capture. Now I say wouldn't he have shown a greater weight of brains, according to the scale of public opinion, if he had taken a file of the Journal for the last four months, thereby securing to himself, in the aforesaid emergency, the usual liberties of harmless lunatics, if able to identify himself as the author? EDITOR SENTINEL: We, the undersigned, who have been working at the Arsenal under charge of Captain Sturm, would like to call attention to the manner in which the managers of that insti tution make and fulfill bargains with some of the The Jewish Feast of the Passover, which operatives engaged there. We were hired to commenced on the 15th inst., will continue eight work at night from 7 P. M. to 5 A. M., and were to receive from 80 cents to $1 each per night; now when they pay us off they allow us only 45 cents to 50 cents per night, and make us take an order for amount due, which we are directed to present to Fletcher & Sharpe, who will pay the same less two per cent. discount. The foreman who hired us states that he was authorized by Captain Sturm to pay 80 cents to $1 per night for hands.

As there appears to be fraud or a very serious mistake in this matter, we would like to know who gets the benefit of the fraud, if such it be. WM. H. COOPER.

INDIANA VOLUNTEER MILITIA, Indianapolis, April 14, '62.) You are again appealed to for contributions of hospital supplies for our sick and wounded volunteers. Nearly or quite one thousand of the brave Hoosier hoys were wounded in the recent battle at Pittsburg Landing, and are being brought to the hospitals in this State. They require comforts and luxuries which you can afford them. Let the appeal not be in vain. The Sanitary Committee here, of which Mr. Hannaman is President, and Alfred Harrison, Esq., Treasurer, has charge of collecting and distributing supplies to points where they are most needed.

The articles particularly required are the following: Woolen and cotton undershirts and drawers, pillows, pillow slips, narrow sheets, towels, handkerchiefs, bandages, lint, combs, cake soap, jellies, canned fruits, etc. All supplies should be carefully packed in boxes and duplicate invoices made, one copy put in the box and the other mailed to W. Hannaman, Esq., President of the Sanitary Committee.

By order of his Excellency, Gov. Morton. LAZ. NOBLE, Adjutant General. Papers throughout the State please copy.

It intimates that the Monitor, Naugatuck, and Galena, all armored vessels, might easily come up the James river and by their invulnerability and powerful guns take and keep possession the city. To prevent such a result it proposes that the channel of the James river shall be obstructed by stone, which it says is abundant for the purpose, and should be used at once. The Merrimac has no t come out and nothing has been seen of her to day. The tide has been low and this may have kept her in. Early in the morning a rebel tug ran out from

BALTIMORE, April 15 .- The Savannah Republican of the 12th, announces the unconditional surrender of Fort Pulaski on the previous day. Seven large breaches were made in the walls by our batteries of Parrott guns at King's Landing, and all the barbette guns on that side, and three casemate guns, were dismounted. Three balls entered the magazine. Col. Olmstead, the rebel commander, signalled the day previous to the surrender, that our fire was so terrible that no human being could stand on the parapet for even a minute. Nothing important has been received here from Yorktown. Preliminary operations are reported as rapidly progressing. From Washington Washington, April 14.-Mr. Kerrigan voted

The defense of the Mexican sovereignty is urged upon the attention of that Government and the declaration made that the United States does not desire to acquire any part of Mexico. On the 9th of June Mr. Corwin informs Mr. Seward that it had been his constant endeavor since his arrival at the City of Mexico to possess the Mexican mind of the true unfavorable termination of them. He was quite sure that when the Mexican Government would endeavor to preserve relations with all European powers on fair terms she would succeed. It regarded the United States as its true and only reliable friend in any struggle which might involve its national existence. Toward the close of July Mr. Corwin, in the course of his dispatch, incidentally remarked that Europe is quite willing to see us humbled, and will not fail to take advantage of our embarrassments to execute purposes of which she would not have dreamed had we remained at peace. This was said with reference to the joint intervention of FOREIGN NEWS.

England, France and Spain in the affairs of Mr. Seward, writing to Mr. Corwin on the 2d of September, assures him the President greatly desired that the political status of Mexico as an independent nation should permanently maintain, and in December, after speaking of the joint intervention, informs him that the Government can not consent to his returning from Mex-

It is known that Mr. Corwin negotiated a treaty with Mexico, but the Senate rejected it on substance of the glorious news as published in the ground that it was not advisable to assume, as was proposed, any portion of the principal or interest of the debt of Mexico which would require the commerce of the European powers. In communicating this result to Mr. Corwin Mr. Seward says, April 3, under these circumstances the President is unable to suggest to you any other mode for contributing to the deliverance of our sister Republic from the embarrasssuccessful event.
